

PROCLAMATION

ONE CITY. ONE JACKSONVILLE.

WHEREAS: Founded in 2012, the AnnieRuth Foundation continues to strengthen underserved communities in Jacksonville and the surrounding counties by providing programs and resources aimed at educating, enriching, and empowering students and their families; and

WHEREAS: The AnnieRuth Foundation organizes three major initiatives, all aimed at different areas of student life; and

WHEREAS: With over 40 community partners, the AnnieRuth Foundation's Summer Internship Program connects high school students with part-time paid opportunities throughout the community. Students gain a mentor, valuable professional experience, and an ability to pursue their goals and interests in a safe, professional environment; and

WHEREAS: Through the AnnieRuth Foundation's Children Learning Ultimate Behaviors (CLUB) program, children in underserved communities gain crucial character development skills that help them realize their full potential; and

WHEREAS: At elementary schools located in food deserts throughout Jacksonville, the AnnieRuth Foundation provides health and wellness programming, including educating on the importance of and strategies for healthy living; and

WHEREAS: For the last decade, the AnnieRuth Foundation has been actively investing in the communities of Northeast Florida. Named for the founder's grandmother, the AnnieRuth Foundation continues to act as a beacon of hope and support for families throughout Jacksonville.

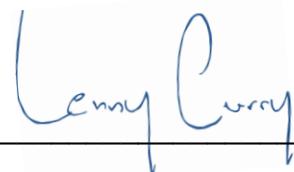

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LENNY CURRY, by virtue of the authority vested in me as mayor of Jacksonville, Florida, do hereby recognize the

in Jacksonville and encourage all citizens to celebrate the AnnieRuth Foundation and their commitment to educating and empowering families throughout Jacksonville.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, this 6th Day of Oct. in the year Two Thousand and Twenty-Two
