A. Racial Profiling

Ms. Hill stated she has been in contact with a diverse group of people since the Zimmerman case determination to get community feedback. The group has determined that it should get together to discuss racial profiling in the community. The diverse group would include representatives for LULAC, NAACP, SCLC, Haitians, African Americans, India, Muslims, Urban League,

GLBT, etc. The timeframe would possibly be the first week in September.

B. Global Jax

Ms. Hill has been invited by Global Jax to host a person from Germany who is interested in how Jacksonville played a part in the civil rights movement in the U.S.

C. Immigration Law

Ms. Rebecca Black will be asked to attend the next committee meeting on September 4, 2013 at 11:00 a.m. to discuss immigration law and secure communities.
