3. Training: OECO trained City Council members, Sheriff Waters, and Citizen Planning Advisory Committees (CPAC) Chairs and Vice Chairs in December. Future trainings include Jacksonville Housing Authority management and employees and JEA managers. Last year, the Inspector General issued reports that had some recommendations for corrective actions that requested OECO to prepare ethics training or letters. OECO is working on the following items pertaining to that:
 1. Draft vendor letter apprising vendors of giving gifts and potential danger areas
 2. Draft training for employees who manage contracts
 3. Streamlining conflict of interest and secondary employment forms for employee services

OGC: Ms. Pollock stated OGC is busy with major litigation.

Complaints Committee: Ms. Galnor advised that the Complaints Committee has one pending complaint.

New Business:

Report from Nominating Committee and Election of New Appointee to Ethics Commission: Judge McCallum gave a summary of the Nominating Committee meeting from November 29, 2022. At that meeting, the Nominating Committee recommended Scott Simpson be appointed to the Ethics Commission. Mr. Oliver provided public comment. Judge McCallum made a motion to accept the Nominating Committee's recommendation to appoint Scott Simpson to the Ethics Commission. Ms. Dixon seconded the motion. Mr. Simpson spoke about his qualifications. There being no further discussion, the motion passed unanimously with a vote of 7-0. Ms. Pollock will draft legislation.

Legislation on Ethics Training: Ms. Oberdorfer referred to a draft ordinance regarding ethics education and training amending Section 602.1001 (Ethics Education Program), Part 10 (Ethics Education), Chapter 602 (Jacksonville Ethics Code), Ordinance Code, to allow the Ethics Director to set the time for training and to allow for digital confirmation of completion of training. A discussion occurred. Judge McCallum made a motion to support the draft ordinance. Dr. Freiburger seconded the motion. Ms. Schmitt asked for public comment. There was no public comment. There being no further discussion, the motion passed unanimously with a vote of 8-0. Ms. Johnston will send the legislation to Ms. Pollock for filing.
