This program DOES NOT apply to the residential solid waste [garbage] fee. Additionally, exemptions provided for ad valorem taxes, such as those granted for senior citizens, disability or widow/widower, ARE NOT applicable to stormwater fee. If you have questions about paying your property tax bill, please contact the Tax Collector's Office at (904) 255-5700.

EARLY FILING DEADLINE – JULY 31, 2024: Complete applications that are submitted by this date may be approved or denied before tax bills are issued, but it is not guaranteed. You are responsible for making sure your tax bill remains in good standing until a decision is rendered.

FINAL DEADLINE – MARCH 31, 2025: All applications and supporting documentation must be received by this date. If your application is approved after the tax bills are issued, you will either receive a refund or a new bill. New bills will provide a 30-day extension on any early payment discounts for which you may qualify.

Regardless of the decision made on your application, you are solely responsible for ensuring your property tax bill remains in good standing. Failure to pay your bill by its final due date may result in penalties as prescribed by law.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

- The applicant must be listed as an owner of the property for which an exemption is sought, or otherwise be an appointed representative who is legally authorized to act on behalf of the owner. The applicant must sign the application if sending by post mail.
- The exemption is available for stormwater fees charged to the property containing the applicant's primary residence. Exemptions are not permitted for stormwater fees charged to rental properties or non-residential properties. The program does not apply to the City of Jacksonville residential solid waste fee.
- Ownership may be verified using information available from the Duval County Property Appraiser and the Duval County Clerk of Courts. All occupants of the household must be listed in Section 3 of the application. All sources of income for all occupants of the household must be provided.
- Applicants listing zero income must provide supporting documentation explaining how household expenses are being met. The Social Services Division may contact applicants to request additional information. Failure to respond will result in denial.
- Information and documents that are provided to support eligibility will be handled in accordance with state law governing public records.
- In addition to the details provided by the applicant, the Social Services Division may, at its discretion, review other sources of public information related to the property and/or the applicant, including property tax, JEA and/or other utility records, to determine eligibility.
