

Carlton A. DeVooght, FACHE, CCEP (Office of the Mayor)

In his current role as Senior Executive Vice President/Chief Administrative Officer & General Counsel, Mr. DeVooght oversees the daily operations and strategic planning for Flagler Hospital. This includes the legal, compliance and risk management offices, as well as all patient care delivery. Mr. DeVooght assumed this role in January, 2018. Mr. DeVooght graduated magna cum laude from the University of Georgia with a B.A. in history and then went on to earn his Juris Doctorate from the University of Georgia School of Law. While an undergraduate at the University of Georgia, he earned the Georgia Varsity "G" as a four-year letter winner on the Men's Varsity Swim Team, was a school record holder, and earned Honorable Mention All-American and Academic All-American honors. Mr. DeVooght earned his MBA with a Certification in Healthcare Management in May 2009 from Brenau University, and received the Leadership Award for all of Brenau's graduate programs.

Since moving to Jacksonville in August, 2014, Mr. DeVooght has joined the Board of the Jacksonville Public Library Foundation, served as a Cub Scout Den leader and a Boy Scout Merit Badge Coordinator, participated in the Leadership Jacksonville Executives class, currently serves as Chair of the Trustees at Southside United Methodist Church, and has coached youth soccer and flag football. He is married to the former Leslie Kirby, and they and their three children live in San Marco.

