1. Call to Order/Verify Quorum: Chair Tyrona Clark-Murray called the meeting to order at 6:02 p.m. The meeting began with reciting the Pledge of Allegiance. Michelle Godwin-Ware confirmed that a quorum was present. Velma Rounsville motioned to approve August 13, 2020 meeting summary and Doretha Tompkins seconded the motion. Chair, Tyrona Clark-Murray noted that on page 2, section 6 Land Use and Zoning, that the staff member present was Arimus Wells and not Kaysie Cox. A motion to approve August 13, 2020 summary with the correction of Planning and Development staff member from Kaysie Cox to Arimus Wells being present was seconded. The motion was unanimously approved.

2. Presentation:

- Kendra Mervin, Community Based Crime Reduction Program Coordinator, presented information about the Mayor's new Community Based Crime Reduction Program (CBCR). The CBCR program is a comprehensive approach to helping the focused neighborhoods of Grand Park, New Town, Durkeeville and LaVilla address crime and safety issues. The program's goal is to reduce crime, improve community safety, and increase mutual trust between law enforcement and the community. The CBCR program will rely on community engagement and feedback. For more information, contact Ms. Mervin at (904) 255-5026 or kmervin@coj.net.

3. Elected Official:

- Nicole Evans, Executive Council Assistant to Council Member at Large Group 2, Ronald Salem, reported that Councilman Salem is chair of the Special Committee on Opioid Epidemic, Vaping & Mental Health Resources. This special committee is formerly known as the Committee on The Opioid Epidemic. Councilman Salem has introduced a new bill that would address the process of renaming public buildings and parks. Ms. Evans offered to relay any questions or concerns to Council Member Salem.

- Honorable Warren Jones, Chair DCPS Board, reported that hybrid classes will fade out beginning September 14th to live class five days a week. On September 14th, sixth graders will return to campus Monday through Friday. Seventh grade students will return full-time September 21st, and high schoolers will return full-time on September 28th. On November 3rd, voters will have the opportunity to vote on the half cent sales tax. Many Duval schools are over 44 years old and are greatly in need of upgrades. Studies show that students learn better in a safe, modernized, conducive learning environment. To learn more visit <http://duvalcbs.com>. Yard signs are available for pick up at the Fire fighters Union, or you can call Mr. Jones at 904-318-5688, to arrange for pickup or delivery of a sign. Dana Kriznar, Deputy Superintendent added that the hybrid classes were not permanent. Ms. Kriznar announced that open house will be held virtually. Open house dates may be found on the DCPS website. The COVID-19 case dashboard may also be reviewed on the DCPS website. The Duval County School Board voted to add three more schools to the list of those being considered for renaming. The renaming process will include alumni, faculty, staff, and residents in the school's attendance zone. Chair Clark Murray asked what will be done with a school once it is closed. Mr. Jones said that there are no plans yet. However, demolition cost is part of the half cent referenda.

4. New Business: Chair Clark Murray announced that the election of a new CPAC Chair and Vice Chair will take place in November and that she needs to select the nominating subcommittee and is taking volunteers. Member Roxane Currier volunteered to be part of the nominating subcommittee. Chair Clark Murray appointed Ms. Currier as the nominating subcommittee chair. Members Larry Solomon and Jacqueline Harrington volunteered to be on the nominating subcommittee. Chair Clark Murray asked Ms. Godwin-Ware if the CPAC will be able to hold November's annual holiday feast this year. Ms. Godwin-Ware said she was not sure how CPAC meetings will resume in November. The Holiday Feast decision was tabled until the next meeting.

5. Unfinished Business: None

6. Chair Report: Chair Clark Murray reported that she received a letter from Council Member Matt Carlucci dated 8.25.20, which elaborated on the Capital Improvement Plan and CPAC's involvement. Ordinance 2020-417-E will codify CPAC involvement. Chair Clark Murray will send the letter to Ms. Godwin-Ware to forward to Northwest CPAC members for their review.

7. Subcommittee and Liaison Reports

- Land Use and Zoning Subcommittee: City Planner Kaysie Cox reviewed several land use and zoning applications with CPAC and LUZ Subcommittee members. Members agreed that the applications reviewed did not require CPAC action.
- TRUE Commission: Member Velma Rounsville reported that the TRUE Commission met September 3, 2020. Unfortunately, the Commission does not have a full committee. TRUE Commission is working with the Mayor's Office to assist with reaching out to the Mayor to find out if he has plans to continue making appointee recommendations. The Auditor had 14 reports to review and discuss with the TRUE Commission. The reports consist of audits by the Tax Collector's Office, as well as several quarterly summaries which needed to be reviewed and are related to general government, the independent agency and for the budget. The Commission will receive a follow up on the Property Appraiser's Office, Risk Management, Workers Compensation and Benefits, and JEA Payroll audits. The Commission had a guest speaker, Council Member Garrett Dennis, who is proposing

Ordinance 2020-529 and Resolution 2020-529 regarding a temporary early retirement window for City employees. It passed all committees but now needs to go before City Council for review. The Legislative Tracking Committee met on Wednesday, September 9th and hopes to have an update for the CPAC at the next meeting. Ms. Rounsville advised that the TRUE Commission has set up regular Zoom meetings and hopes to be able to get caught up. The TRUE Commission is preparing the annual report and will have bullet points from the report to go over with the CPAC in October. Ms. Rounsville will reach out to the President of the TRUE Commission to see if he will be willing to speak with the CPAC and provide an overview of what the TRUE Commission is about.

- Transportation: Mr. Solomon had no report.
